

Whixall Parish Council

Procedure for Co-opting a Parish Councillor

Introduction

Parish Councils are permitted the power to co-opt a person on to the council to fill a casual vacancy when the requirements to hold an election¹ have not been met

Seeking Expressions of Interest

Seeking expressions of interest is not a legal requirement, but the National Association of Local Councils (NALC) recommends that Councils always give public notice of vacancies to make the process of co-option open and transparent and to attract more candidates.

The Parish Council will advertise the vacancy by a specified date to attract applications from anyone in the parish who is eligible to stand as a parish councillor. The attached application form will be used to help ascertain a candidate's suitability to put his or herself forward.

At the next Full Council meeting:

- The clerk will confirm that each candidate is qualified to become a councillor and is not disqualified from being a councillor as set out in the Local Government Act 1972 (see 'qualifications' and 'disqualifications' on the application form)
- Any candidates who are in attendance will be invited to speak by the Chairman who will also allow Members the chance to ask questions of the candidates.
- Only those councillors present may nominate, second or vote for a person to fill the vacancy. A councillor may only nominate or second one candidate.
- The chairman will offer the opportunity for debate on the order of priority to offer co-option to the candidates. In most cases, the candidates should leave the room at this point.
- Voting for the new Councillor will be by a show of hands. The Chairman will initiate a vote in alphabetical order. Councillors have one vote each.
- An absolute majority vote is required for each candidate from all members present and entitled to vote. If there are no more than two candidates for one vacancy and no one of them at the first count receives a majority, the candidate with the least number of votes will be eliminated and the remainder must be put to the vote again until an absolute majority is obtained (LGA 1972 Sch. 12. Para 39). One person will be chosen for each vacancy.
- The successful candidate is then declared co-opted to the Council. If they sign their declaration of office they may take their seat immediately, otherwise they are summoned to attend the next Council meeting.

The above procedure takes place in open Council.

Following the Full Council Meeting

The Clerk will notify Electoral Services of the new councillor appointment and organise Declaration of Acceptance of Office paperwork. All new councillors, must, within 28 days of appointment, register their interests with Shropshire Council using forms supplied by the Clerk.
